

5147

Large Pair of French Leune/Daum Enameled Vases as Lamps; Signed Leune

circa 1925

the bottle-form vases now mounted as lamps enameled with cascading holly bush stems over a satin finished glass; excellent condition with no chips or cracks; Leune was a decorating workshop founded in the early 20th century, headed by Paul Daum. The blanks were supplied by Daum Freres. The workshop ceased operations in 1932.

Height: 21.5" (top of glass)

Seat height:

Width:

Depth:

Diameter: 6.5"

Drop:

$6,850