

5091

Two Schlossberg Keramik 1950's Pale Chartreuse Glazed Vases

1950-1959

consisting of one ovoid pot and a fish-mouth vase, each in a glossy light-chartreuse glaze contrasting with a matt brown background; Schlossberg Keramik was established in 1946 by Ilse and Theodore Stefan in the North Rhine-Westphalia region of Germany. The name was derived from its proximity to the foot of the 'schloßberg' or castle hill; excellent vintage condition with no cracks; minor overall rubbing to surface; some small fritting to rims

Height: 15" 12"

Seat height:

Width: 6.5"

Depth: 5.5"

Diameter: 9"

Drop: