

5413

English George III Hand Carved Walnut Tripod Tilt-Top Supper/Tea Table

late 18th Century

a wonderful period English George III hand-carved tilt-top supper/tea table with shell and leaf carved top with circular reserves, over a turned baluster support issuing three downswept legs terminating in ball and claw pad feet; the English supper table became popular during the reign of King George II and continued into the late 18th century; repair to edge of top; refinished surface

Height: 28"

Seat height:

Width:

Depth:

Diameter: 32.25"

Drop: