

5431

A Custom Venetian Style Circular Mirror with Ornate Butterfly and Floral Crest by Stephen Cavallo for Mirror Fair

dated 1995

surmounted by an exuberant crest centering a boldly-scaled butterfly flanked by cascading floral vines; all over a circular mirror plate within a conforming beveled mirrored frame with reverse-etched floral and foliate vines; excellent condition with no chips or cracks; antiquing to silver; some glass rosette screw covers missing; Established in 1911, Mirror Fair (now known as Stephen Cavallo, a 3rd generation owner) is still in operation today in New York's Upper East Side and offers custom-made mirrors, bespoke cast-glass moldings and mirrored paneling still using the same centuries-old techniques of the great Venetian masters. Clients include Bergdorf Goodman, Robert AM Stern, Brian McCarthy, and the National Trust, to name a few Height: 46.5"

Seat height:

Width: 35.5"

Depth: 1.5"

Diameter:

Drop:

$6,500