

5489

Paul László for Brown Saltman Mid Century Basket Weave Desk/Vanity

1950s

A stunning ash desk designed by Paul László for Brown Saltman c.1950s, USA as part of the "Basket Weave" collection; this classic California Modern design features two cabinet doors flanking the kneehole; one door opens to reveal an open shelf while the other provides three sliding drawers. It also has a center drawer with dividers for desk accessories and such. This piece can also be used as a console table. Stamped - Brown Saltman Co - South Gate, California; good vintage condition with professionally refinished surface

Height: 28.5" (kneehole: 23.25")

Seat height:

Width: 63.25" (kneehole: 26.5")

Depth: 18.5"

Diameter:

Drop:

$6,800