

2931

a boldly-scaled pair of american classical revival verdigris copper architectural brackets; labeled 'perrit iron & roofing co. pittsburgh'

circa 1880

each large scaled triangular element of scrolling anthemions composed of a well-patinated verdigris copper; some repaired seams and indentations; with later shelves to top.

Height: 22"

Seat height:

Width: 30"

Depth: 15"

Diameter:

Drop:

$3,625